RE: Case Number: 21-O-14331
Respondent: Anna Barsegyan

Dear Christine N Grab:

This will acknowledge receipt on December 28, 2022 of your additional complaint and information dated December 19, 2022 regarding the above case.

Your recent correspondence presents no new evidence which would merit reopening your complaint. Based on our prior review, the decision to close this file will stand.

If you have presented all of the information that you wish to have considered, and you disagree with the decision to close your complaint, you may request that the State Bar's Complaint Review Unit review your complaint. The Complaint Review Unit will recommend that your complaint be reopened if it determines that further investigation is warranted. To request review by the Complaint Review Unit, you must submit your request in writing, either:

- 1) Via email: Within 90 days of the date of this letter, by email to: CRU@calbar.ca.gov; or
- 2) Via United States Mail: Post-marked within 90 days of the date of this letter, by United States Mail to:

If you decide to send new information or documents to this office, the 90-day period will continue to run during the time that this office considers the new material. You may wish to consult with legal counsel for advice regarding any other available remedies. You may contact your local or county bar association to obtain the names of attorneys to assist you in this matter.

Thank you for bringing this matter to our attention.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, most State Bar staff are telecommuting. If possible, please send your response to this letter, and any further communication directed to the State Bar, using email in lieu of regular mail. My email address is roy.kim@calbar.ca.gov.

Sincerely,
