RE: PUBLIC RECORDS ACT REQUEST

Dear Ms. Grab:

This letter is in response to your inquiry to our office submitted on January 24, 2024, in which you request records pursuant to the California Public Records Act. (Gov. Code, § 7920.000, et seq.) You asked to be provided with "[a] copy of the oaths and bonds for two California Office of Legislative Counsel employees: Stephen Dehrer and Cara Jenkins" and "copies of all pages of the standard operating manuals utilized by the Legislative Counsel which address the policies, procedures and protocols surrounding oaths and bonds, including issuing, recording, filing, etc for oaths and/or bonds."

The records in the custody of or maintained by the Legislative Counsel, other than those records already displayed on the internet website www.leginfo.legislature.ca.gov and certain other exceptions not applicable here, are expressly exempted from the requirements of the California

Evidence 110-6 of 7

Public Records Act. (Gov. Code, §§ 7928.100 & 10248.) Therefore, records responsive to your request, insofar as they exist, will not be produced.

Very truly yours,

Cara L. Jenkins
Legislative Counsel
