Dear Ms. Grab:

On behalf of the office of Senate President pro Tempore Toni G. Atkins, this letter responds to concerns raised in your January 8, 2024 email correspondence sent to Senator Atkins' office.

As an employee of the California State Senate, Jason Weisz, the Deputy District Director for Senator Atkins, took and subscribed the oath of office as required by California law. (Cal. Const., Art. XX, Sec. 3.) Legislative employee oaths do not expire and are not filed with the Secretary of State. As you may recall, a copy of Mr. Weisz's signed oath document was provided to you by the Senate Committee on Rules as an enclosure to a letter dated August 14, 2023, responding to your request under the Legislative Open Records Act.

Exhibit 21 - 8 of 11

With regard to any concerns or complaints you have regarding the Franchise Tax Board, we suggest that you contact that agency directly (<https://www.ftb.ca.gov/help/contact/index.html>).

Senator Atkins considers this matter to be closed. However, please feel free to contact Senator Atkins and her staff regarding any other matter for which they may be of assistance via the contact methods described on the Senator's internet website at <https://sd39.senate.ca.gov/contact>.

Sincerely,

Cara L. Jenkins
Legislative Counsel
