

Please keep in mind that Ms. Braverman, Ms. Cervinka, Ms. Contreras and Mr. Nam have never denied these facts to be true. failure to deny constitutes admission: Any material allegation in the complaint that is not effectively denied is deemed admitted. [CCP § 431.20(a); see Hennefer v. Butcher (1986) 182 CA3d 492, 504, 227 CR 318, 325].

I hope that each of you understands that YOU are responsible for yourselves. It is up to you to make sure that you have a current oath and bond filed with the Secretary of State's office. While Ms. Braverman, Ms. Cervinka, Ms. Contreras and Mr. Nam have criminally conspired together to evade complying with the federal and state oath and bond laws, their failure to perform does not exonerate you from the consequences of your failure to ensure that you are compliant with the laws. As the new session starts. I urge each of you to ensure you are compliant.

"We the people" will no longer tolerate our government employees failing to comply with the laws. The days of "rules for thee but not for me" are over.
