Dear Mr. Severiano:

As someone who works for a person who aggressively pushes pedophilia and tries to make it illegal for us parents to protect our children from being groomed and raped by child predators, I would not say the person you currently are is a good person.

I am glad to hear that you are reflecting about whether this is the person you want to continue to be.

Here is a story about four teens who were groomed into sexual relationships with adults, and the devastating consequences it has had for their lives: <https://magazine.atavist.com/fault-lines-cleveland-high-school-reseda-los-angeles-core-abuse/>.

Hopefully, this article will help you to understand why you should be working to protect the children and not the perpetrators.

Happy Reflections,

Christine grab

I am out on vacation until 11/25. I enter the last year of my twenties this week and am spending a lot of time reflecting on the type of person I want to become.

Should you need anything, please call the office at 916-651-4011.
