Dear State Senate Employees:

This is a reminder that you are each responsible for yourselves.

I have documented that Erika Contreras, John Nam, Lynne Cervinka and Sheila Braverman have been criminally conspiring to evade the federal and state oath/bond laws. They are being enabled and aided by the Lieutenant Governor Eleni Kounalakis, previous Senate Pro Tempore Toni Atkins and current Pro Tempore Mike McGuire, along with the Rules Committee legislators and staff: pages 1 - 18: <https://gwsandiego.net/blog/wp-content/uploads/2024/09/Certificate-of-Default-pages-1-18.pdf> and pages 19 - 35: <https://gwsandiego.net/blog/wp-content/uploads/2024/09/Certificate-of-Default-Pages-19-35.pdf>

This failure by leadership to comply with laws does not absolve each of you of your personal responsibility to have a current, fully executed oath that complies with the constitutional requirements and a surety bond filed with the Secretary of State.

YOU are the one who will go to prison if the Trump administration and/or the military chooses to prosecute these crimes. The argument that leadership told you the expired oath was still valid and that surety bonds aren't required won't hold up in court -- especially since I have repeatedly shown you all the pertinent laws and the State Senate has not denied that my interpretation of the laws is correct.

I realize that no one has been prosecuted to date for failure to comply with oath/bond laws. However, since the election, the California governor and many legislators -- including Scott Wiener -- have been boldly proclaiming that federal laws/rules do not apply to California. These people have basically dared Trump and the military to go after them. It will not surprise me if Trump accepts that dare.

I strongly recommend that each one of you do what you need to do to ensure that you are lawfully employed (and thus not caught up in the cross-fire).

Also, please do not forget that working without an oath is considered to be the crime of fraudulently posing as a government agent. There is no statute of limitations on fraud, so Trump can go after you for each and every year you were working without a current oath in place.

Finally, as we start the new session, please remember that each of you are public servants. You have been given power by the people to act on our behalf in accordance with our wishes. In recent years, the State Senate has behaved as if they are a monarchy and not public servants. I hope that this session, each one of you will remember that "we the people" can take our power away from you if you do not properly serve us.

Regards,

Dear State Senate:

I am thankful that in the United States, I have the right to oversee my legislators to ensure that each of you are properly serving the public.

I hope you each take some time to reflect on what it means to be a public servant. I hope each of you do some soul searching about whether you are doing what the constituents want you to do on our behalf, or are you pushing personal agendas to the consternation of the public.

I hope that when you all return to the new legislative session, you will each be thankful that you have been given the opportunity to be public servants, and strive to be the best representatives of the public interest to which you have been entrusted.

I hope that each of you will do your best to ensure that each person in the legislature is focused on following the existing laws (including having proper oaths and surety bonds). Please stop protecting the law breakers — let them suffer the consequences of their own choices.

I also hope that each of you will focus on ensuring that any new laws that are introduced/approved line up with the state and federal constitutions (as you promised to do when you signed your oath).

I hope all of you enjoy your holiday.
