From the auto-responder below: "...our fabulous Policy Director, Danielle Bautista."

Ms. Bautista, was it you that made the policy to hide on your website which organization was really helping the people? Letting them think that a bank or other benign agency was helping them when it was actually Dreams for Change coming in and doing the tax/ITIN work at the benign location?

Is the definition of "fabulous" being a deceptive fraudster? Is the definition "fabulous" knowingly sending people into potentially dangerous situations instead of fixing the situation for the better?

That sneaky, deceptive and underhanded move of changing your website so that people couldn't protect themselves made me lose all respect for you and United Way.

And Mr. Tahara, in the FTB meeting, you stated that you regularly met with the NGOs that were receiving funds. Did you know that United Way was hiding this information from the constituents? Were you a party to United Way's deception?

Regards,

Christine Grab
